The draft describing an Executive Secretariat contains the statement: (c) "He will keep the DCI, DDCI, and Deputy Directors advised of significant correspondence via a periodic reading file..."

It was thought that a Reading Board similar, if not identical, to the current Director's Daily Journal might be circulated. Attached is the Index to a Daily Journal (Attachment A) to give you an idea of what they contain. It would be quite a production job to reproduce all this correspondence in several copies per day -- and probably not useful, since you will be seeing a great deal of it anyway in the course of its normal flow.

An alternative would be to circulate a daily summary (Attachment B). Each of you would be free to call the Executive Secretariat requesting that which may be of interest to you. The Executive Secretariat would check as appropriate with the DCI or originator.

Obviously each of you will want to correspond with the DCI and DDCI on an Eyes Only basis. Such correspondence would not be summarized and circulated, but it is hoped that Eyes Only correspondence will be held to a minimum.

Please let me have your views by phone.
